Facilities

Toilets are available on the trains and at every station; disabled toilets and nappy changing can be found at Alresford, Alton and Ropley Stations. If you need help, advice, first aid or directions, simply ask a member of uniformed railway staff.

ID Cards Must Be Carried At All Times!

Police will be carrying out spot checks throughout the weekend. Missing or faulty cards need to be replaced at stations along the line.

THE WATERCRESS LINE

Daily Newspaper

June 1943

1d.

Your day out at 'War on the Line' will transport you back in time to a 1940s railway.

Find out about the American troops stationed in the area, wartime recipes, hair styles, radio signals or bomb disposal. All along the line you will meet wartime history experts and enthusiasts who will be happy to chat to you.

Try your hand at plotting air raids or have a go at dancing the Lindy Hop, munch doughnuts with the 'Yanks' or visit the salon for a war time hair style.

Young visitors can use their copy of The Children's Times to help the Ministry Man carry out his checks on the railway!

Each station shows you a different side of the war effort and there is wartime music and dancing entertaining you all the way, with live performances at every station. Your ticket gives you freedom of the line for the whole day, so Keep Calm and Steam Along!

American Soldiers arrive in Alresford

American soldiers arriving in Britain have been issued a booklet advising them on British culture and etiquette. GIs are advised to 'never criticize the King or Queen' and 'It is always impolite to criticize your hosts; it is militarily stupid to criticize your allies'.
